
Technology

- How can we be faithful Christians in a technological world?
 - The Challenge: technology is perpetually _____.
- What is Technology?
 - “The application of knowledge to achieve practical goals” – Encyclopedia Britannica
 - “Applied _____ and amplified _____.” – Tony Reinke

Disenchanted Technology

- The question when evaluating technology: “What is the desired _____?”
 - Perhaps it isn’t our _____ that is the issue. Perhaps it is _____.
- “God is the original _____....” – Owen Strachan
- Humanity and technology: Genesis 11:1-4
 - “...they had lost the mission, the charge of their maker, so they gave themselves to their own _____.” – Owen Strachan
 - The goodness of technology is determined by the _____ of the use of the technology, and the final _____.
- He has called us to have _____ over technology for His glory. Not that it would have _____ over us.

A Wonderfully Limited Humanity

- Transhumanism is a “futurist” philosophy that’s core desire and leading principle is a wholesale _____ of human _____.
 - Christian Response: Humanity operates best and flourishes the most when operating within God given _____.
 - Psalm 23
 - Where we are _____ He is not.
- Transhumanism, like the tower of Babel, says “come let us make a _____ for ourselves.”
 - A disenchanted humanity will use technology to try and achieve what only _____ can provide.

Reenchanting Technology

- First, _____ has the highest authority on all matters.
 - 2 Tim. 3:16-17; Ps. 119:89-90, 105
- Second, we must put all of our _____ in God alone.
 - Ps. 20:7
 - Do we trust God as much as we think we do?
- Third, we should find our highest _____ in God.
 - We have become _____ to our devices, dropping everything at their beck and call
 - Ps. 1:1-2
- Fourth, we should order our _____ correctly.
 - Matt. 22:37-40
- Fifth, we should use every tool at our disposal to make the _____ clear to the world.
 - 1 Cor. 9:19-23